

The Secret Life of Pets

Books you may want to read

Key Vocabulary

Mammals – Warm-blooded creatures that tend to have hair.

Birds – Warm-blooded animals that tend to have feathers. They lay eggs.

Fish – Cold blooded animals that live in the water. They have fins and scales.

Amphibians – Cold blooded animals that live in the water and on land.

Reptiles – Cold blooded animals that lay eggs. They have scales.

Vet – They are Doctors for animals.

Herbivore – Animals that eat only plants.

Omnivore – Animals that eat meat and plants.

Carnivore – Animals that only eat meat.

At the end of this topic I will be able to...

- Talk about the difference between animals that we can keep as pets and animals we cannot keep as pets.
- Understand the importance of being kind to animals.
- Understand the importance of hygiene when looking after a pet.
- What to do if we see a wild animal
- Begin to understand the role of Vet
- How to care for animals

Key Questions...

- What is a pet?
- Where do they live?
- Will any animal make a good pet?
- What type of animals could you have as a pet?
- What should you consider when choosing a pet?
- How do we look after them?
- What do they need?
- What are the 5 things we must provide to our pets?
- What do pets eat?
- Do all pets have 4 legs?
- Do all pets need daily exercise?
- Can you move like a pet?

